QUALCON 2023

Qualcon[®] 2023

SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

OCTOBER-2023

QUALITY 5.0
"PEOPLE, PROCESSES, AND PERFORMANCE WITH INTEGRITY"

CHAIR'S WELCOME

As the Conference Chair for Qualcon® 2023, I'd like to officially welcome and invite everyone in our AOQ ecosystem to join us in Geelong in October.

In Australia especially, we tend to be forward thinking, early adopters of ideas and I'm pleased that this is reflected in the theme for this year's conference. We're charging beyond Quality 4.0, which looked at applying technology into quality. Quality 5.0 views Quality through a much more human-centred approach and looks to support society. Quality 5.0 considers disparate issues such as human-robot collaboration, development of sustainable and resilient systems and human centricity.

We are working on developing an exciting, interactive and engaging program of formal presentations, workshops, networking and social events. Our pre-conference workshops on 11 October 2023 will be collaborative and interactive spaces to develop and learn. The two days of speakers and presentations on 12 and 13 October will be a fantastic opportunity for hearing new and different insights into the people, processes, and performance elements of Quality and how integrity should underpin these elements.

The conference will be held in the beautiful grounds of the Deakin University Waterfront campus. Against the backdrop of Geelong as a place of innovation and new technologies, it will be a great place to consider the here and now of Quality and the possibilities for the future.

I hope to see you in Geelong in October!

Best regards

Maree Stuart
Conference Chair

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Australian Organisation for Quality Ltd (AOQ) is excited to welcome back the biennial Qualcon® conference in October 2023. The theme for Qualcon 2023 is Quality 5.0: People, Processes and Performance with Integrity. We are excited to bring this event to life and explore the key elements of this exciting theme and how emerging trends and practices are impacting our industry.

This year's conference will take place at Deakin University in Geelong, Victoria, demonstrating the commitment of the AOQ to Australia's regions and emerging professionals.

Qualcon is a rare opportunity for Australia's Quality industry professionals to share and engage in conversation around today's contemporary quality practices.

Sponsorship openings are limited but are presented in multiple formats to cater for every company's budget to maximise the opportunities available to any company with a commitment to quality. With some of the benefits being:

- Direct engagement with some of Australia's finest quality minds, and the wealth of combined experiences that they hold - including members of your local state-based chapter!
- The opportunity to be involved in the exploration of our theme and its relationship to both contemporary and emerging quality, and quality management.
- The ability to provide input into the development of the program and the topics to be presented on and discussed.
- Targeted sponsorship opportunities for your business to be represented and acknowledged for its commitment to quality.
- Exposure to over 3,000 of AOQ's LinkedIn followers and membership database.

ABOUT THE AUSTRALIAN ORGANISATION FOR QUALITY LTD

The Australian Organisation for Quality Ltd (AOQ) is a not-for-profit national association with Chapters in each State. Formed in 1968, it pioneered efforts to gain acceptance of quality within Australian industry as a pre-requisite for international competitiveness. AOQ has been running the highly successful Qualcon conferences (AOQ's National Quality Conference) attracting local, interstate, and international delegates for many years.

Our purpose is to provide leadership in quality that drives a strong, competitive Australia. AOQ is committed to realising our purpose in all industries that deliver outcomes which affect people's experiences.

TARGET MARKET FOR CONFERENCE ATTENDEES

The target market for conference delegates includes not just traditional quality professionals, but also Business Improvement & Excellence Specialists; Compliance Professionals (from all levels of business); Health, Safety and Environmental Practitioners; Decision-Makers and all professionals interested in implementing or ensuring that organisational operations are completed to standards and with consistency, every time.

We are expecting attendees from all states and territories across Australia and beyond, with a target of 75 attendees. A wide range of industries will be represented including construction, manufacturing, healthcare, aerospace, transport/logistics, professional services, defence, government, research, finance, utilities, disability services and aged-care.

- Quality and Processes
- Quality and Performance
- Quality and Integrity, and
- Quality and Technology.

Our keynote speakers have been identified and include Professor Prabhu Sivabalan - Professor of Management Accounting and Control at the University of Technology, Sydney. Prabhu has strong research and teaching links with top academic institutions globally, including the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Our speakers will include diverse thought leaders, subject matter experts and leading Quality and improvement practitioners.

Qualcon 2023 offers a sponsorship opportunity catered to the need of any organisation.

Sponsors will be able to maximise their exposure and visual commitment to the event with product and brand recognition before, during, and after the event. Our marketing and social media channels will highlight and promote our valued sponsors alongside the opportunity for merchandising your company's products and services during the event to our delegates.

Your company's sponsorship will be recognised with conference registrations, which will allow your staff members direct access to the delegates and all events on the conference program.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Sponsors will receive the following specific benefits:

- Acknowledgement on the Qualcon 2023 website, with your company's logo and links to a sponsor's collateral material.
- Acknowledgement, thanks, and logo placement in conference programs and during conference sessions.
- Recognition and placement in Quality Business the quarterly newsletter of the Australian and New Zealand organisations for quality, as well as recognition and links to your company's website in AOQ's monthly eNews with a distribution of 2,000 quality industry contacts.
- Conference platinum and gold sponsors will be specifically recognised for their contributions, and our speakers will acknowledge their business and their product or service.

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Your company's commitment to Qualcon and AOQ will provide specific benefits that cannot be obtained through any other sponsorship. Alongside the public commitment to Quality by your organisation that can only be seen from a Qualcon sponsorship, specific additional benefits include:

- Direct access to conference delegates by your staff before, during and after the conference
- Lead generation from a pool of committed companies and individuals
- Reduce time finding the key decision makers in Quality, all in one location
